Emily Eubanks with Brad Tobeman

Scholarship Awarded!

The Sauk Prairie Theatre Guild is pleased to announce that our first scholarship has been given!

We chose to make our scholarship available through the Sauk Prairie Foundation for Academic Excellence.

The scholarship, an award of $500, was named in honor of Mercedes Cox, founding member of the Theatre Guild (as Riverside Players!).

The Scholarship went to Emily Eubanks, who will be attending Edgewood College in pursuit of a degree in either musical theatre and/or stage craft.

Thank you to all of our members, donors, audience, cast & crews who made it possible to be able to make this scholarship possible!

Nutcracker 2007

Nutcracker is in the works again!

Currently being planned for the weekend of December 1, 2007, this will be the same show as was done in 2005.

If you're interested in participating — we'll be looking for a LOT of help with this — please let us know! There is room for folks to make costumes, props, & cookies, as well as managing children, and all other aspects of putting a production on!

Volunteers are always needed!

If you'd like to become more involved, but aren't sure how, please contact us.

We need all kinds of help with: costumes, sets, props, production-oriented stuff and organization-oriented stuff!

February 2008

We've got a weekend in February earmarked for a show. We will be deciding over the summer what show it will be.

If you've got a hankering to direct, an idea for what you'd like to see, a hot lead, or are just willing to help us decide, please let us know!
